ALL-CHINA FEDERATION OF COOPERATIVES

The First All-China Delegates Conference of Chinese cooperative workers came to a successful conclusion 27 July 1950. The conference convened for 22 days under the direction of Liu Shao-ch'i, deputy chairman of the Central People's Government, and Po I-po, deputy director of the Committee of Finance and Economics of the Central People's Government.

At the conference the delegates conducted lively discussions of many matters. The conference adopted the draft law of cooperatives for the People's Republic of China for submission to the Central People's Government for approval and promulgation. It also adopted the Charter of the All-China Federation of Cooperatives as well as draft regulations for the cooperatives of the various levels. Po I-po and 31 other delegates were elected members of the Provisional Board of Directors of the Federation and Yeh Chi-chuang and 9 other delegates were elected members of the Provisional Supervisory Committee.

The conference called on all members of the All-China Federation of Cooperatives to resist American aggression in Taiwan and Korea and also sent a letter of appreciation to Chairman Mao in behalf of all the delegates at the conference.
